

New Jersey State Horticultural Society Celebrating 133 Years in 2008

Horticultural News

L to R NJ Governor Jon Corzine presents Governors Cups to Bill Buckley, VP Sales Tomasello Winery, Hammonton; Bill and Penni Heritage, Furman Garwood, Heritage Vineyards.. Tomasello Winery in Hammonton won the Governor's Cup for Best Dessert Wine with its 2007 Vidal Ice Wine. Heritage Vineyards of Richwood won the Governor's Cup for Grape Wine with its 2005 Chambourcin. Alba Vineyard won the Governor's Cup for Fruit Wine with its Apple Ice Wine. Awards were presented at the 2008 NJ Agricultural Society Legislators Tour in Gloucester County

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Consumer Evaluation of New, Antique, and Little Known Apple Varieties.....	3
Former Rutgers Professor and Editor of Hort News Elected to ASHS Hall of Fame 2008.....	20
Peter Shearer Leaving Rutgers for Oregon State.....	22
Cranberry Planting Innovations.....	23
New Advances in Pear Production.....	26
Research Continues as Honey Bee Losses Rise in U.S., Fall in Pa.....	31
Arthur H. Thompson, Professor, Pomologist.....	33
Membership Form.....	35

NJSHS information also at <http://gloucester.njaes.rutgers.edu>

COOPERATIVE EXTENSION