

Spring 2009
Vol 89 No 2

New Jersey State Horticultural Society Celebrating 134 Years in 2009

Horticultural News

New President Ken Wightman(left) and immediate Past President Greg Donaldson (right) at the 2009 New Jersey Agricultural Convention in Cherry Hill, N.J.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Gaventa Receives Outstanding Fruit Growers Award.....3
Over 2100 Participate in MAFVC and Trade Show.....5
Problems Encountered During 2008 Mock Audits.....9
Performance of Day Neutral Strawberry Varieties.....14
Elbert Gaventa.....18
Carlton Carter.....18
What Was Learned in 2008 About Managing Phytophthora Blight in Curcubits Crops in Pa and NY.....19
Peach Variety Report Available.....20
Blackberry Varieties-Results of Four Year Trial.....21
Effectively Managing Powdery Mildew in Cucurbit Crops with Research Results from 2008.....25
Harry Blacks of Cactoctin Mountain Orchard Receive Governor’s Hall of Fame Award in Maryland.....32
Fruit Growing Tour to Germany and Poland with IFTA.....32
Kay Rentzel New Managing Director of NPC.....34
Ed Gaventa Elected President of NPC.....34
Membership Form..... 35

NJSHS information also at <http://gloucester.njaes.rutgers.edu>

RUTGERS

New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station

COOPERATIVE EXTENSION